Dear Friend.

The Chai Center is one of New York's most unorthodox Orthodox Jewish centers, a popular hub for Jews of all backgrounds who want to learn more about their Jewish roots.

The Chai Center offers a wide variety of educational and spiritual opportunities, including Hebrew school, preschool, summer camp, programs for children with autism and special needs, Torah classes and lectures.

MYTH

One of the most common myths about The Chai Center is that it is primarily geared for the more traditional observance or Orthodox. Therefore, if one does not fit that bill, then one should seek other places.

FACT

The Chai Center does not recognize the false labels of Orthodox, Conservative, and Reform. "A Jew is a Jew-Period." We have one Torah, we are one people, we have one G d and one land.

FACT II

If The Chai Center were in fact here for the Orthodox, we would be able to conduct every class, service, program and event in a phone booth.

FACT III

There are no prerequisites for getting involved with The Chai Center, whether you are affiliated or not, have much Jewish background or none, you are always welcome to try one or all of our programs.

Please afford yourself the opportunity to visit and participate in our vibrant Center and check out our website www.TheChaiCenter.com and Facebook page at www.facebook.com/TheChaiCenter.

At The Chai Center of Dix Hills, you will acquire lifelong friendships, a path for spiritual growth, and most importantly, a chance to be a part of your Jewish community and extended family.

Please feel free to visit us for services or any other program, or just stop in to say hello.

For more information or to arrange a meeting with the Rabbi, please call the office at 631-351-TORA (8672).

Rabbi Yakov Saacks
